

Our office is open to the public by appointment only. Face coverings and social distancing is required. When scheduled to report, we ask that you call your probation officer upon arrival and wait in your car for further instructions to enter the building. The main line is 972-204-7450.