

ROCKWALL OFFICE 972-772-3000

Emergency Shelter Care

WIN maintains a shelter located in Hunt County for victims of domestic, dating and intimate partner violence and their children. It furnishes temporary emergency housing to victims who are in physical danger.

Legal Advocacy

Legal advocates provide support and accompaniment for victims navigating the legal system. Assistance is provided with protective orders, divorces, and custody for victims of domestic, dating and intimate partner violence.

Counseling Services

Individual and group counseling is provided for victims of domestic, dating and intimate partner violence in both Hunt County and Rockwall County.

Call 903-455-4612 for more information about the Hunt County support group options. Call 972-772-3000 for more information about Rockwall County support group options.

8/1/2023 10:55 AM

Prevention Education

WIN seeks to prevent violence in relationships before it begins. Prevention Education programming is provided for schools, church groups, law enforcement, civic groups, etc. For prevention education services in Rockwall County, please reach out to Jeff Landers at jlenders@wintexas.org. For prevention education services in Hunt County, please reach out to Lisa Farquhar at lfarquhar@wintexas.org.

Outreach, Awareness & Fundraising Services

Please contact Outreach and Engagement Coordinator JillAnn Gamble at jgamble@wintexas.org for outreach, awareness & fundraising opportunities.

Ex-Residents Program

WIN provides aftercare and support for individuals and families that have exited shelter.

WIN 24-Hour Hotline

24-hour crisis counseling, information, and referral are provided to victims of domestic, dating and intimate partner violence. Call (903) 454-HELP (4357). Text 972-591-SAFE (7233).